

Ruben Arebalo has 15+ years of dental laboratory experience with more than 10 years of digital design and edentulous, full-arch case planning experience. A graduate from the University of La Verne, Ruben is frequently sought out for technical advice and recognized as an expert in attachments and implantology. Ruben joined Preat Corporation in 2008, was named Sr. Technician in 2010, promoted to General Manager in 2014, and most recently became Vice President in December 2018.

Title: Implant Supported and Retained Full Arch Removable Treatment

Description: How, where, when, and why different treatment options are chosen for the edentulous patient. Treatment options covered will be Overdenture Bars, such as Hader, Plunger Loc, Sagix, and Locator as well as Overdenture Studs, such as RT-x, Clix, Locator, O-Rings, and Magnets.

Review of available attachment systems for overdenture therapy to simply and successfully restore implant supported prostheses.

Selection of attachments based on patient parameters

Use of attachments and clinical/laboratory procedures to restore two to eight implants using overdentures.

Pitfalls and how to avoid them.